

Stop carrying out Works during the Cancellation Period

Instructions to stop work during the Cancellation Period

You having previously instructed Us (the Trader) to start works during the Cancellation Period and you having received, from us, notice as to your rights and obligations in this respect.

Please sign below in acknowledgment, where you want us to stop the Services prior to the expiry of the Cancellation Period.

We shall stop the Services once you have signed the form below:

BE AWARE!

If you requested us to begin work during the 14-day cancellation (Cooling-off) Period and have now decided to cancel this contract, within the 14-day period, then the following will apply:

- a) you will be liable to pay a reasonable and proportionate amount for the work (and reasonable costs incurred) we have done up until you communicated your decision to cancel the Agreement, or
- b) the charge period will end at the date we receive this notice from you, cancelling this contract
- c) if we have fully completed the Work under the Agreement before you give your notice to cancel, you will lose your right to cancel and you will be liable to pay the full price under the Agreement
- d) we will make any reimbursement of any deposit paid by you to us, without undue delay, and not later than -
 - 14 days after the day we receive back from you any goods supplied, or
 - (if earlier) 14 days after the day you provide evidence that you have returned the goods, or
 - if there were no goods supplied, 14 days after the day on which we are informed about your decision to cancel this contract.

We will make the reimbursement using the same means of payment as you used for the initial deposit/transaction, unless you have expressly agreed with us otherwise; in any event, you will not incur any fees as a result of this reimbursement
